

Dios de amor y misericordia:

Te damos gracias por todos los padres: los hombres que has escogido para proteger, guiar y amar a sus hijos.

Bendícelos con valor y perseverancia para que puedan recorrer siempre tus caminos con un corazón agradecido, que sepan deleitarse en los momentos sencillos y significativos de su vida.

Fortalécelos con tu Palabra y tus Sacramentos para que vivan, practiquen y proclamen su fe en un mundo que tanto necesita la alegría y la verdad de tu Evangelio.

Fortalécelos con el amor y el cuidado de las familias y los amigos.

Te pedimos que los bendigas en este día y siempre. Amén.

Feliz día a todos los Padres en su día!

God of love and mercy:

We thank you for all fathers: the men you have chosen to protect, guide and love your children.

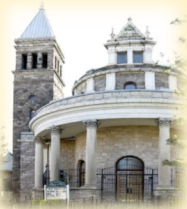

Bless them with courage and perseverance so that they may always walk in your paths with a grateful heart, that they may know how to delight in the simple and significant moments of their lives.

Strengthen them with your Word and your Sacraments so that they may live, practice and proclaim their faith in a world that so needs the joy and the truth of your Gospel.

Strengthen them with the love and care of families and friends.

We ask that you bless them on this day and always. Amen.

POPE FRANCIS

GENERAL AUDIENCE 06/12/24

Summary of the Holy Father's words.

Dear brothers and sisters, good morning, welcome!

Today, in our continuing catechesis on the Holy Spirit and the Bride, we reflect on the action of the Holy Spirit in Divine Revelation, specifically in Sacred Scripture. God, who inspired Scripture, in turn inspires the Church, the Bride of Christ, through his holy word, making of her its authoritative interpreter. The Spirit also communicates with us personally within this ecclesial reality, whether through lectio divina, which is a meditative reading of a Scripture passage, or above all, in the Liturgy. In whatever the setting, there is always one word that is meant especially for us. Like a musical composition, Sacred Scripture carries throughout an underlying theme, which Saint Augustine and Saint Gregory the Great call God's love. May we "learn to know the heart of God through the words of God" and allow them to breathe that love into our daily lives.

PAPA FRANCISCO

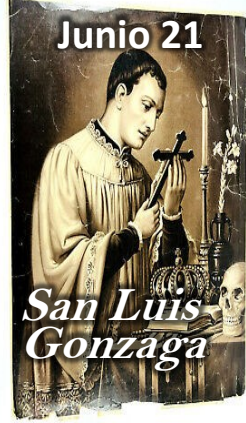

AUDIENCIA GENERAL 06/12/2024

Resumen leído por el Santo Padre

Queridos hermanos y hermanas:

Continuamos con nuestras catequesis sobre el Espíritu Santo, y hoy destacamos su acción de "inspirar". En el Credo decimos que es Él quien habló a través de los profetas, y el documento conciliar Dei Verbum añade que nos habla también a través de las palabras de los apóstoles, contenidas en la Sagrada Escritura. Él es quien ha inspirado a los autores sagrados de la Biblia, por lo que reconocemos que esta es Palabra de Dios. Él es quien nos la explica haciéndola viva y eficaz.

El Espíritu Santo se encarga de seguir nutriendo a la Iglesia con la Palabra divina, porque es bajo su guía que nosotros podemos leerla, meditarla y llevarla a nuestra propia vida. Y esto sucede cada vez que tomamos un fragmento de la Sagrada Escritura para tener un momento de oración, pero particularmente cuando la proclamamos en la Eucaristía, donde constatamos cómo una enseñanza del Antiguo Testamento encuentra su plenitud en el Evangelio de Cristo.

Junio 21

"Nadie puede tener a DIOS por PADRE, si no tiene a la IGLESIA por MADRE: el que no comparte los sufrimientos de la Iglesia no tiene CORAZON DE HIJO".

"No one can have GOD as a FATHER who does not have the CHURCH as a MOTHER: who does not share the sufferings of the Church does not have a SON'S HEART." St Aloysius Gonzaga
